

Bavarian-Czech Workshop: EDIHs & AI/Robotics Horizon Europe Calls 2024

14 September 2023

Representative Office of the Free State of Bavaria in the Czech Republic
Michalská 12, 110 00 Praha 1

Agenda

- |               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 12.00 – 12.55 | Registration and Lunch                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 12.55 – 13.00 | Welcome speech by the host:Florian Winzen , Head of the Representative Office of the Free State of Bavaria in Prague                                                                         |
| 13.00 – 13.50 | Session moderated by the Bavarian Research Alliance (BayFOR):                                                                                                                                                  |
| 13.00 – 13.20 | - Keynote speaker:Prof. Berthold Bäuml , Professor for Robotics at the Deggendorf Institute of Technology and the German Aerospace Center"Smart Hand – Deep Learning meets Robotics" |
| 13.20 – 13.50 | - Pitch talks                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 13.50 – 14.20 | 30 minutes break                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 14.20 – 15.30 | Session moderated by the CzechInno EDIH CIH on cybersecurity:                                                                                                                                                  |
| 14.20 – 14.40 | - Keynote speaker:Prof. Tomas Pitner , Coordinator of EDIH Cybersecurity Innovation Hub, Masaryk University in Brno &amp; CyberSecurity Hub Institute                                        |
| 14.40 – 15.00 | - Pitch talks                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 15.00 – 15.30 | - Presentation on upcoming AI/robotics EU topicsSimone Wiegand                                                                                                                                      |
| 16.00 – 17.00 | Session moderated by the Bavarian EDIH DiNO on AI (as "BarCamp"):                                                                                                                                              |
|               | - Topic survey                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|               | - Voting on the topics                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|               | - 2 to 4 parallel sessions                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 17.00 – 18.00 | Networking and final remarks                                                                                                                                                                                   |